Dear Miss Whitney:

Here is the check. You wrote that the price was $350, yet I have suspicions that by some covert generosity you are preventing my playing the part I had so much in mind of a thorough going customer. At any rate I know our gains are not level with this little outgo. In no other way would the sum have purchased so long a pleasure.

Alice will enjoy the likeness, + I the fine art, so long as our eyes can see. And always we shall be the happier for having you a member of our household.

Sincerely yours,

S. W. Palmer
